

Name: _____ Date: _____

The chart below shows the structure of the Summa Theologiae. Write the English titles of the main parts. In the boxes below, jot down a few of the topics covered in each part.

|  |                                              |                                    |  |
|--|----------------------------------------------|------------------------------------|--|
|  | Building Blocksof the Moral Life | Specifics of the Moral Life |  |
|--|----------------------------------------------|------------------------------------|--|

So, one begins by considering _____ in himself, and then the procession of creatures from God, and then their return to him in the moral life through _____ and his sacraments.

Comprehension question: Why do you think St. Thomas Aquinas structured the Summa this way?

Optional Activity: Visit Index — Aquinas 101 \(thomisticinstitute.org\) to find an online copy of the Summa Theologiae. Explore the different parts. Click on a treatise and then a question and write down the title of an article you think sounds interesting.
