

CHANGING THE NARRATIVE – MANAGE DISCIPLINE IN A POSITIVE AND NOT PUNITIVE MANNER

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

1. Describe your current method of discipline.

---

---

---

---

2. How can a positive language impact your classroom? School?

---

---

---

---

3. In meeting with parents, how could this language guide your discussion?

---

---

---

---

---

4. Virtue is the habit of doing good. It is helpful to recognize the virtue in your students as well as the areas of growth.

SUGGESTION: During the course of the school year, make a list of your students and identify their virtues as you witness their growth. [This will strengthen your relationship and give you a positive language to use when speaking with them.]

DISCIPLE OF CHRIST

NAME: Elizabeth

REPORTED BY: Miss Dunn, Math Teacher

DATE: October 10, 2017

GRADE: Mr. O'Neill

HOMEROOM TEACHER: Mr. O'Neill

"Let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven." (Matthew 5:16)

CHRISTIAN WITNESS:

Patience and Perseverance

Elizabeth has been patient all week as she struggled with the Math lessons. I was impressed how she persevered to complete the challenging problems and corrected the ones she missed.
